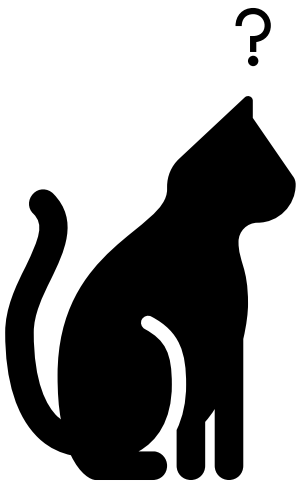
Disadvantages of Obsidian

- Does not support real-time collaboration.
- Data is stored locally, no integrated cloud storage.
- Mobile version often lacks in functionality.
- Customization overload.
- Not completely open source.



Questions?

Personal Reflection Space

Zettelkasten-Method in Obsidian | by morganeua (youtube.com)

→ This is by far the best tutorial on the Zettelkasten method in Obsidian that I know of.

Integrating Zotero and Obsidian for Academics | by Do Won Kim (do-won.github.io)

→ Zotero is free and open-source reference management software to manage bibliographic data. (For Obsidian integration, use Zotero 6 instead of the latest version, Zotero 7.)
